To Crown Junior Miss Saturday Dec. 7

The 1968 Junior Miss will be crowned on Saturday, Dec. 7, at St. Joseph Academy Memorial Hall.

Dale Russell, 1965 Junior Miss, will crown her successor. Dale is the daughter of Federal Judge and Mrs. Dan M. Russell and is a junior at the University of Southern Mississippi where she is majoring in elementary education. She is a dean's list scholar, cheerleader, pom-pom girl, a member of the Delta Delta sorority and is presently serving as vice-president of the Hellenic Council and is 1969 March of Dimes chairman for the University.

Since the last Hancock County Junior Miss pageant in 1965, Dale has appeared in Seventeen Magazine where she was chosen one of 17 outstanding teens in America, and holds titles of South Mississippi Livestock Queen, Hancock County Queen of Hearts, Bay St. Louis Rodeo princess, Hancock County Miss Hospitality and first alternate to Mississippi's Miss Hospitality.

This year's contestants include Edith Ann Pernicaro, Judy Marquar, Linda Tenney, Elaine Blaize, Karen Poolson, Sarah Scruggs, Wanda Jordan, Sylvia Hinkkanen, Kathy Moore, Mary Lou Gavagnie, Rachael Ames, Jane Viguerie, Jean Delaney, Judy Ireland, Mary Helen Piazza and Lynn Wade.

Hancock Christmas Savings Set All-time Record in '68

Hancock Bank Christmas Club savers established a new all-time record of $807,418.50. Leo W. Seal, Jr., president of Hancock Bank, announced this record amount as Christmas Club checks were put into the mail the afternoon (Thursday, November 21) for delivery to club members before the weekend. Of this total amount, almost $100,000 was received by Christmas Club members in Bay St. Louis. A new high in Christmas savings was also established in Bay St. Louis this year with 1083 participants accounting for a record saving of $96,050.50.

Seal also explained that these checks, usually mailed the day before Thanksgiving, were mailed earlier this year because of the late date of the Thanksgiving holiday. This is expected to give Christmas shoppers and merchants an additional week for shopping.

Using computer facilities at the Hancock Bank Computer Center on Pass Road, Christmas club checks were processed for mailing in less than two hours. As much as two weeks were required in the past to complete this operation manually.

Seal said that during 1968 savers increased their Christmas funds using the club plan, and the number of participants increased to 8,044.

who will visit the Open House on Dec. 7 and 8 will have an opportunity to examine a book collection of the production of the Tapestry which is being displayed in England after the Norman Conquest. The original was 230 feet long and is the first strip-cartoon. Book containing this work is one of many excellent and beautiful volumes belonging to the Bay St. Louis-Harrison County Library that will be on display. Another volume of exceptional interest to parents is a brief biography of many well-known illustrators and anecdotes about how they happened to get into the field of illustration of Children's Books. One artist gazed at a Yak in a zoo and asked himself "Why is a Yak?" (Le Grand Henderson), and he was off to fame as an illustrator! Ten rooms of Yasume are being readied by a veritable army of Bay St. Louis citizens with a goal of presenting a wide variety of reading matter, objects of art, paintings of local artists, and the floral arrangements of Bay-Waveland garden Club members in an interesting and stimulating manner.

If asked the question: "Where do you live?" you may proudly reply: "I live in Bay St. Louis, but I walk with the great men of the ages. Through our libraries we are privileged to read the works of great thinkers or to lose ourselves in exploring the world around us through non-fiction, fiction, biography, and art. Our library can tell you how to avoid a law suit, knit, cook, get a di-voice, plant a garden, etc. You may escape every day hum-drum and join the rich Guggenheims, the Lewishons and other influential New Yorkers as depicted by Stephen Birmingham in Our Crowd, the Right People who established stadiums, Museums and Opera Houses.

Hostesses who will serve at the OPEN HOUSE for the LIBRARY at residence of Col. and Mrs. Pilet on Saturday afternoon December 7 are: Mrs. Chas. Elliott, Mrs. Lucien Gax, Sr., Mrs. Elizabeth Weston, Mrs. Tom C. Wichter, Mrs. Wm. Frisbie, Mrs. S.R. Willet, Jr., Mrs. Gordon Tod, Mrs. P.M. Hurley, Mrs. O. H. Pilkey, Mrs. C. (Cont. on Page 7-A.)

Patty Cuevas Reigns Over Fishing Rodeo Ball

At Saturday, Nov. 23, St. Joseph Academy in Bay St. Louis, Grand Ball of the Fishing Rodeo, the full season, house lights

County Mississippi Fishing Rodeo, Inc. He extended a welcome to the guests who were assembled, then proclaimed Mr. Charles Dickson of Pearl-Lington, Commodore for 1968, an honorary title bestowed for outstanding service to the organization.

Mr. A. B. Allen of Pearl-Lington, who with Mrs. Allen served as co-chairman of the ball committee, took over the microphone to act as master of ceremonies for the evening. One by one, twelve charming princesses, dressed in identical emerald gowns of aqua blue slipper satin and carrying white carnations, were escorted to the floor by Commodore Dickson to meet their escorts. The escorts were sponsors of the princesses or representative of the sponsors. Following the introduction of the princesses, Miss Martha Griffin, of Bay St. Louis, 1967 queen, was escorted to the floor by Mr. Hall to meet her father, Mr. J. Rubie Griffin. Together they circled the floor to bestow a royal greeting.

After a procession of the entire court, the princesses formed a circle around a flower fountain in the center of the floor. The high point of the evening had arrived. Each girl withdrew a silver ribbon, fastened to a white envelope, from among the flowers.

Miss Patty Cuevas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cuevas, Jr., Lakeshore, was the young lady whose envelope contained the "lucky number" (Cont. on Page 7-A.)

"I Saw Wrinkles Vanish or Diminish in 2 Weeks"

NEW YORK (Special): "Disappearance of small wrinkles was accomplished... even the very deepest wrinkles showed very great improvement." This dramatic report on the ingredients in Genava was made by a noted physician, specializing in dermatology, after tests made on a selected group of women. He saw these results with his own eyes.

With this substance new to cosmetics, named Genava, aging skin can start looking younger and younger, not older and older. The physician also commented, "The small superficial wrinkles responded dramatically." And he adds that the skin was "more translucent and smoother in appearance."

These results are nothing short of amazing. And it took a new cosmetic compound to do it.

Developed by the trustworthy Nina laboratory, Genava is designed to be used under make-up and as a night cream. It is absorbed instantly. In two weeks time wrinkles will vanish or diminish greatly. That is the promise now made possible by Genava. Skin will become more translucent, younger-looking. Now available in selected stores. 1.65 oz. $3.50; 4 oz. $5.00. Notes from Pearllington

by BRENDA ANDERSON 533-7874

Today is the day to give thanks for divine goodness. The Scottish poet Robert Burns summed up how we should feel with four small lines.

"Some hae meat and canna eat,
And some wad eat that want it;
But we hae meat, and we can eat;
Sae let the Lord be thankit."

Among those attending the Hancock County Fishing Rodeo Grand Ball on November 23 at the St. Joseph Academy auditorium in Bay St. Louis were: Mr. and Mrs. Joel Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gaudin, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Allen, Leroy Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Russ, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickson, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. (Boogie) Dean, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Dorr, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Givens, Mrs. Aida Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Chandler Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry York, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bello, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Caron and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Snow.

Special mention goes to George Godwin, Joel Thomas Adams, Rocky Gaudin and Bobby Lewis who did a wonderful job serving the guests.

Debbie York is home after her stay in the Sidel Hospital, and is reported to be feeling fine.

On November 24, the Queen of the Hancock County Fishing Rodeo and her court were entertained with a buffet style dinner by the Diamond Club Lodge. The affair was held at the Pearllington Recreation Park Community Center with ham, bar-b-que beef, salad, bar-b-que beans and soft drinks as the main course. The supervisors and school board members of Hancock County and their wives also attended. Wives of the escorts for the queen and her court were there also. The meal was prepared by A. B. Allen and was served by Mr. and Mrs. Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gaudin.

Beginning one week from today, on December 5-8, there will be a Youth Revival at the First Southern Baptist Church of Pearllington with Evangelist Larry Barlow as guest speaker. The Revival will begin on Thursday night, December 5 with a Gaillean Service at the City Pier. This service will begin at 8:30 p.m. with a winner roast to follow. Services on the other nights will begin at 7:00 p.m. with a folk singing group to entertain each evening. Everyone is welcome to attend these services.

mas shoppers buy at home," Seal said, "this saving plan is also used to purchase savings certificates, to start or add to a savings account, for year-end taxes, bills, insurance premiums and to add to college education saving programs for their children."

An early pioneer in promoting the concept of Christmas Clubs, Hancock Bank marked the 54th year the club plan has been offered to Gulf Coast residents. And each year the amount saved and the number of participants in the program have increased.

In 1914, the program was initiated by the bank and continued annually with the exception of World War I when savings were converted for the purchase of Liberty Bonds.

The 1968 club began on Monday, November 26, at all nine bank locations. Club accounts are available in payment classes from fifty cents to $10 a week, or any combination of the six classes depending on the amount the individual wants to set aside for next Christmas.

There is no charge or penalty if the club is not paid in full.

LAMAR-LANE SALESMAN JOHN GALLAGHER AND CHARLES E. HAWKINS STAND IN FRONT OF HAWKINS' NEW PICK-UP TRUCK.

I live in Waveland and work for Newkirk Construction Company. I needed a new truck to work from and after careful consideration of the deal made me by salesman John Gallagher of Lamar-Lane Chevrolet, I bought the truck best suited to my transportation needs.

I needed a new car so my dad and I went shopping and after looking at all the dealers to Gulfport and not being satisfied we decided to come over to Bay St. Louis and see what Lamar-Lane had to offer since we had heard so much about the dealership.

When we arrived we were greeted by J.C. Koennen and he helped us select just the car we wanted and watched us drive off in it within just one hour.

spent funds from sales tax. Liquidated damages $47,000.00
Surplus Sales Tax 50,000.00
Total $97,000.00

In round figures we have $100,000.00 and we now call attention to the City officials and the taxpayers of the City of Bay St. Louis that it's time for "belt tightening" on the part of the city officials.

It is further recalled that the city blacktopped 7 miles of street for $35,000.00. So it is time to review our position with this amount of unspent funds on hand, while we are waiting for the audit promised by the city officials many months ago.

THEREFORE BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that we go on record as recommending to the city officials to again renew the plan used in the beginning, based on $5,000.00 per mile the City could now complete 20 miles of streets for $100,000.00 cash now on hand with no increase in taxes and no front-foot assessment.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this RESOLUTION be delivered to the Sea Coast Echo so that same may be brought to the attention of both the City Officials and the taxpayers of the City of Bay St. Louis.

The following Resolution was also adopted:

Scout Troop 208 Holds Camp-out

Boy Scout Troop 208, sponsored by the American Legion Post 139, spent the past weekend camping out on International Paper Company property in Anseley.

Thirty-four Scouts, accompanied by Scout Leaders Watson Johns, Charles Scianna, Warren Buehler, Al Summy, Al Vetter, Bob Fleming and L.S. Pahlman camped, cooked and hiked Saturday and Sunday.

Jules Remel, Unit Supervisor for International Paper Company in Hancock County showed movies Saturday night on tree farming in the south, wood harvesting, operations of a paper mill and a film on a wood cutting combine that falls trees, removes branches while cutting the tree in six foot lengths and loads wood in a sling, all operations without the tree handled by hand.

The troop hiked in the woods, observed trees and wildlife and dug for Indian relics.

Sunday morning Rev. Richard Somers, Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church, celebrated Mass at Sea Glenn Lodge for the group.

The boys returned to the American Legion home at noon Sunday.

BILLY STECHMANN

BILLY STECHMANN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Stechmann, left Tuesday for the U. S. Navy Recruiting Sub-station in Jackson. He is now stationed at the Command Recruit Naval Training Center, Orlando, Fla., where he will undergo nine weeks basic training.

Position Now Open

The board of directors of Mississippi Action for Progress, Inc., has approved a program for the incoming grant that will include funds for hiring a project officer for Hancock County.

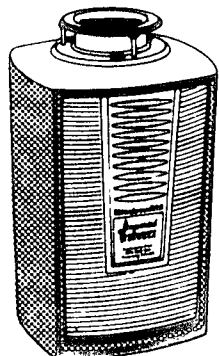

Successful applicant for the position will be responsible for the total program in the county and among other duties will advise and assist the county advisory board in strengthening its objectives for developing the community through Head Start programming.

Qualifications call for a man or woman with high school education or equivalent; must be able to supervise and administer Head Start programs; must have one year experience with Head Start or equivalent; must have leadership ability and must relate well to all people, and have transportation.

For further details contact local Head Start Centers or phone Victor Franckiewicz, Hancock County advisory board president at 467-7397.

23 Shopping Days 'til Christmas
NOW IS THE TIME TO LAY-A-WAY FOR CHRISTMAS
Lusich's Dept. Store
Third St.
"The BIGGEST little store Back O' Town"

AS WE'VE DONE for years, once again we vowed that we would begin Christmas shopping shortly after the Feast of July, and sometimes within the past few months we did manage to pick up a few small articles to get us ready for the season. It is Thanksgiving, and we're really not ready for the season's annual visit than we were on Labor Day. Each year since then, again featuring ads bordered with holly and mistletoe along with the end of October and we try to get in the mood by listening to Jingle Bells as the temperatures lower in the high 70's. For some reason, always find it absolutely impossible to get down to any serious Yuletide planning until the Thanksgiving turkey has been devoured and Christmas seems only days away.

LUCKY ARE the farsighted who have pocketed the savings begun in local banks along about this time last year. There must be just one bank in the world with a half-year Christmas Savings plan which would allow those who usually aren't out of debt from the preceding year until April or May to begin saving around June 1st. We realize such a plan wouldn't allow enough time to amass a fortune, but it would be one way to aid the other put-offers to be a little better prepared for Dec. 25.

FIRST BIG EVENT Saturday night was the highly successful Fishing Rodeo Ball and every table in St. Joseph Memorial Hall was filled with festively dressed residents from all over the county. The 13 princesses were lovely in identical aqua satin gowns and each was escorted by her sponsor, all being members of three major county boards--supervisors, county school and port and harbor. 1966 Commodore Charlie Dickson escorted the girls to the center of the ballroom floor where they were met by sponsors. Pretty Patty Cuevas was crowned queen as she drew the, in this case lucky, number 13. Last year's queen Martha Griffin placed the crown upon Patty's head as her escort Ed Orto, school board president, beamed approval.

A FAIRLY COMPLETE guest list included: our Kila report--or Claire Mitchell and husband Jerry; Doris and Cleveland Wyatt, Alino and Agnel Moran, Herman Roy Neelise, Mrs. Melvin J. Hobert, Bobbie and J. Q. Ladner, Sam Ladner, Marie Neelise, the Glenn Dorris, Marie and Lee Klein, J. R. Davis, Pat Furey, the Roland Bennetts, the Earl Davises, Patsy Dean, Harlan G. (Boogie) Dean, Mavis and Wilson Webb, Irma Levens, Betty and Lamar Oles, Henry Oles and Forrest Favre.

ALSO HELEN and Bernice Piazza, Laura Piazza, Shirley Piazza, Julia Piazza, Irene and Ernest Cuevas, Jr., Richard S. Spiera, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Matheson of Atchafalaya, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Huber of Glendale, Sontry; Mat (Mrs. Nellie) Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Le Compte, Mr. and Mrs. Cy Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Joel B. Adams, Eugene Richardson, Alva Mayhew, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Caron, Edward C. Snow, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bello, Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer R. Jenkins, Thelma Dickson, Nancy and Charlie Russ, the Peck Mauttrays, Effie and Joe Cuevas, Marion and Russell Elliott, Ruth and Fred Curet, Garfield Ladner, Mary Jo Jacobi, Mike Malone, Frank Bens and about half again as many more, but we were forced to leave before we could get the rest of their names. Incidentally, we're most indebted to the young man who took the time and trouble to get the above list for the column--sorry we don't know his name.

BAY-WAVELAND YACHT club was elaborately decorated to carry out the Roman Holiday theme of the second annual Junior Auxiliary Charity Ball and a capacity crowd had a wonderful time at the affair. Cinderella's tiny slipper slipped easily on Prim (Mrs. William) Hillier's dainty foot and handsome Tommy Kidd was chosen as Prince Charming.

SUCH ELABORATE formalities were worn by members and guests alike that we couldn't begin to try to describe elegance of the beautiful gowns. Dianne (Mrs. Butch) Bohl was lucky winner of the luxurious fur stole and just a few spotted in the crowd included Bobbie and Henry Maggio--he acting as mace when prizes were distributed; Dee and Buddy Dodson, Evelyn and Charles Cox, Myrt and Mike Haas, Linda and Nicholas Haas, Nancy and Howard Adams, Virginia and Fred Wagner, Eleanor and John Hill, Paddy and Dave Johnson, Margie and Charlie Powers, Lois and Ed Morgan, Jill and Gerald Cox, Johnny Levens, Margaret and Dick Shadoin, Emily and Rene de Montlun, Margie and John Anderson, Skyring Balaski, Claire and A. J. Frey, the Gene Laders, Elvire and Gerry Ross and ever so many more.

CHRIST EPISCOPAL'S fifth annual Christmas bazaar was another reminder to get ready for the holiday season and gifts of every description were attractively displayed at Dielman Center last Tuesday and Wednesday. A novel feature, the post office, offered gifts from former residents and many from political prominence and television fame. These were auctioned and luck bidders went home with some real collectors items. Lila Greenfield added a collectors item to her display of engravings. She bought Lady Bird Johnson's autographed steel engraving of the White House. More lucky ones bid successfully on gifts from Carol Burnett, Art Linkletter and other notables. Lou (Mrs. Terry) Feeney was chairman of the post office booth and had written to all who donated gifts. Now she's faced with the task of writing thank you notes.

Shower Fetes Mrs. Carter

A pink and blue color scheme and arrangements of pink and white blossoms decorated the home of Mrs. William Breland when she entertained Friday night with a stork shower honoring Mrs. Charles Carter. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Wyllie Heath and J. C. Koenann. The refreshment table held a shower cake decorated with blue spun sugar booties and pink roses flanked by silver candelabra holding white tapers. The honoree was presented a corsage of daisies and miniature baby items.

The grandmothers-to-be, Mrs. Charles Carter Sr. and Mrs. O.W. Brown of Jackson, were each given a grandmothers brag book. Games were played and prizes won by Mrs. Carter Sr. and Mrs. Rubie Griffin.

Other guests included Mesdames Anthony Maculick, Robert Warner, Ed. Harriel, Victor Frankiewicz, John Scafide, Floyce Brown, Long Beach, Mary Evelyn Wallace, Bert Stieffel and Sam Favre.

Etude Club Christmas Program

The Etude Club met November 17, at the home of Mrs. Robert Hamilton, Leopold Street, Bay St. Louis, for the annual Christmas program.

Final arrangements were made for the annual Christmas on the Organ program.

Leanne Russo and Monilia Casenard, IV, performed at the piano and a recording of moderately difficult piano pieces made by Dr. Garson Yeast, Jacksonville University, Jacksonville, Florida, was played.

The president announced the appointments of Leanne Russo, in charge of the year book, and Donna Sick and Cynthia Ladner as telephone committee members.

Mrs. Teague encouraged the members to strive for the gold cups to be awarded after the National Federation of music festival.

January meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Walter Russo.

Chevrolet's got a big surprise for the guy who'd buy a sports car if only it had more room. It's the Impala SS 427.

Like all Impalas, it comes with a 119-inch wheelbase, Astro Ventilation and full door-glass styling. Like all Chevy Sportsters, it comes with a beefed-up suspension and grabby red-stripe wide oval tires. Under the hood, it's more of the same. We tucked in a 427-cubic-inch 390-horsepower Turbo-Jet V8.

That means it's the kind of car you can take for a workout even if you're just going to work.

THE DEKELAND SAINTS will once again play for the Saturday night dance at St. Clare's Parish Hall. Admission is $8. per couple and as everyone is familiar with these great parties, we don't consider further elaboration necessary.

NADINE AND RICHARD STAMM acquired a brand new bright blue station-wagon over the weekend.

DOT AND MANNY HUBBARD and family went into the Crescent City Sunday to await the arrival of another grandchild. Their youngest daughter Sally and husband Steve Ericson's first heir is due momentarily.

GRACE AND HERB Baron report having a ball on their recent Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. vacation. They were most enchanted by the swimming pool which boasted a most unusual feature. . . you'll have to have either Grace or Herb tell you all about that pool!

MR. AND MRS. KEN CARON entertained a most interesting recent weekend visitor in their Pearlinton home. He was Padre Antoni (Anthony) Breskey, a missionary priest from Livingston, Izabal, Guatemala, C. C. Fr. Breskey appeared to very much enjoy the usual attractions of our area, especially fishing. He held the Carons spellbound with descriptions of life as a missionary in the mountains of Guatemala where he is not only the only available priest, but also serves as doctor and dentist. Ken is now seeking supplies to aid the good father in his most worthwhile work. There's one main drawback—he must pay duty on anything he receives, including medicine and instruments, so used implements would be most practical as they would cost less to get into the Central American country.

A VERY happy birthday greeting goes to the Echo's newest employee, Kay (Mrs. Lee) Beard, Kay cut her 31st cake on Sunday, Nov. 24.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY is extended to the family of Eddie Fayard, Sr., who passed away Thursday night at Hancock General Hospital. Eddie not only was much renowned for his fishing talents, but fishermen will always prize the excellent handmade lures for which he was famous.

THE STORK will soon be depositing his first bundle at the home of Kathy and Charlie Carter, Jr.

LEATRICE AND LEONARD Rasmussen also expect their first visit from the legendary bird in the very near future.

NEL (MRS. WAYNE) DUCOMB was so busy concentrating on pretty Martha Griffin's appearance on Mid-Day as 1967 Hancock County Fishing Rodeo queen, that she quite forgot that she and the First Lady would be in the Crescent City on the same day. That was until she noted a large amount of excitement around the French Quarter restaurant in which she and Martha were lunching. Never one to miss an opportunity, our Nel instructed Martha to identify herself to Secret Service agents and present Mrs. Johnson with a rodeo doubloon and a copy of the Mississippi Monitor.

Martha did just that quite calmly and not only gave Lady Bird the gifts, but also chatted with her for a few moments.

MARY ELIZABETH and Ed Hall spent the weekend visiting friends in Mobile.

GRIP CORNER - It seems that we have this complaint about the same time each year--but darkness apparently sneaks up on children riding bikes a long busy thoroughfare and once again they're apparently attempting suicide in larger numbers nightly. A few have small reflector lights, but parents if you must allow your offspring out after dark, please at least buy front and rear lights for their bicycles.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY - The scarlet November look of frost tinted leaves; brilliant holly, pyracantha and yupon berries, even the blazing glow of the sunset reflects bright red lights in the shimmering waters and the almost rare sound of a horse's hooves clacking metallically along the pavement.

RESOLUTION

Upon motion by Supervisor Kellar, seconded by Supervisor Russ, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, on this day the Hancock County School Board presented to this Board a Resolution seeking authority to borrow monies for the purpose of school operation.

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED that the resolution of the Hancock County School Board be received and filed, and made a part of the minutes of this Board.

Further, that this Board authorize the Board of Trustees of the Hancock County School District to borrow the sum of $40,000.00 until such time as all valorem taxes in the Hancock County School District are collected for the current fiscal year.

The Board further resolved that there is the necessity for borrowing said money for school operation.

Further, that no funds are available in the school funds of the District, or from any other sources, to continue school operations.

Further, that this Resolution shall be published once each week for two consecutive weeks in a newspaper having general circulation in the Hancock County School District, as required by law, and if application requesting an election as provided by law is filed prior to the meeting of this Board on Monday, December 8, 1968, then this Board shall give final approval to the borrowing of said monies, then this Board shall on the aforesaid date forthwith authorize the issuance of negotiable notes or certificates of indebtedness of the Hancock County School District, in accordance with law.

Continued to this 14th day of November, 1968.

KANTCHA KETCHUM

By L.S. (Doc) Elliott

Fishing has still been good with fresh and salt water fish being caught most everywhere. On the hunting side geese, rabbits, squirrels are being killed. Goose hunting has been best out in the marshes and things look bright for ducks when the season opens.

Dove hunting is still on the rotten side with no doves in the fields, which are full of feed. Can't explain why there are no doves. Could be that there has really been no cold weather. Maybe migratory birds will come this way before too long. It could be that the 34d season will be the best. It opens on Dec. 21 and runs thru Jan. 13th.

Another season anxiously-awaited is that of quail, which will open on November 30th. Local hunters are working out their dogs and locating coveys. Some good shooting should be experienced as there seems to be plenty quail in the field. Quail hunters predict a good season on these prize birds.

Working out their dogs over the weekend were among others Dick Mestayer and Willard Peterson.

Joe Collier and Concetta Collier have been doing some real good fishing lately.

Dr. & Mrs. Emile Bertucci had as guests on their boat, Shirley, Dr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Bertucci, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Rolfe of Houston, Texas, August Ramet and yours Truly. A pleasant day and trip was enjoyed plus a few fish being caught. Doc said the fish could have been a little more cooperative, however.

SPORTSMAN OF THE WEEK

Although a busy man, Joe Benvenuti finds time to get in some hunting and fishing. He and his fishing buddies enjoy his boat which was built for fishing as well as comfort. Joe learned his fishing skill from his dad.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schwartz both hunt and fish. They are old timers at these sports. They hail from down Ansley way.

Mrs. Edie Dunegan owner and operator of the Red Barn is a swell person to know. Mrs. Dunegan's place at Ansley caters to fishermen and other sportsmen. Its a nice place to relax after a fishing or hunting trip. Refreshments are always on hand.

Willard Page and W. C. Burge are from Neelies Crossing, Willard and W. C. do a lot of fishing and hunting and are hard ed for a long time.

Will spend Thanksgiving Holidays in Jackson visiting our daughter and family. Will probably get in some fishing and hunting.

There will be plenty of fishing and hunting going on over the Thanksgiving holidays. Good catches of all kinds of fish will be made and some good hunting trips enjoyed. Goose hunting, shooting doves, rabbits and squirrels will take up most of the time of sportsmen off on a couple days vacation.

According to those traveling the woods, deer seems to be more plentiful than usual. Heard of a lot of deer killed in the county. They are seen quite often crossing the highways after dark. They are a beautiful animal and the favorite for eating by many. Mississippi is one of the best states for deer hunting.
